

Dr. Del Tackett

Dr. Del Tackett, a 20-year veteran of the United States Air Force, is the architect and teacher of The Truth Project, a video-based small group resource experienced by over 20 million people in more than 100 countries.

The Engagement Project is Dr. Del Tackett's next set of small group Biblical worldview tours, helping believers "to understand who we truly are, why we are still here, and what God has asked us to do." His other teaching series include Cross Examine, Who Is Jesus, and the theatrical release Is Genesis History?

As an officer in the United States Air Force during the George H. W. Bush administration, Del served at the White House as director of technical planning for the National Security Council. He worked for years in the software engineering discipline and led the team that developed a critical command and control system for NORAD in Cheyenne Mountain, Colorado.

Dr. Tackett is one of the founders of New Geneva Theological Seminary and a professor of numerous worldview courses. He led and taught for years at the collegiate Focus Leadership Institute, currently teaches as an adjunct professor for the Alliance Defending Freedom, Summit Ministries, and Impact 360, and has authored hundreds of Biblical worldview articles on faith, family, and culture. Dr. Del Tackett earned his doctorate in Management and Computer Science from Colorado Technical University.

Del and his wife Melissa have been married for more than 50 years, have 4 grown children, 10 grandchildren and reside in the Black Forest near Colorado Springs, CO.

For more information or to schedule Dr. Tackett for your organization, email him at Admin@DelTackett.com. To access many of his articles, visit www.DelTackett.com, including information on how to access The Engagement Project and The Truth Project.