

Churchwide: Ongoing Missions Experiences

WMU encourages church leaders to lead the entire congregation to be involved in missions. This approach can be the entire basis of WMU work in the Church or can be combined with ongoing missions organizations for one of more age levels.

SUGGESTED IDEAS

- Week of Prayer for International Missions and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering®; share prayer guide brochures with all members, use promotional materials
- Week of Prayer for North American Missions and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering®; share prayer guide brochures with all members, use promotional materials
- Week of Prayer for State Missions and the Eliza Broadus Offering®; share prayer guide brochures with all members, use promotional materials
- adopting/praying for an unreached people group
- adopting a KY MSC Missionary
- praying for specific missions needs
- praying for church planters in Kentucky
- learning about the Cooperative Program through a video, lesson, or lunch & learn
- collecting items needed by a local ministry, KY MSC Missionary, or for the WMU's Christmas in August program
- inviting a missionary speaker
- conducting a missions fair
- sponsoring a mission action project or missions trip
- challenging church members to adopt and pray for those going on mission trips through your church
- take your women to the Kentucky WMU Proclaim Missions & Evangelism Conference
- take your men to the Kentucky WMU Men's Missions Rallies
- take your girls in grades 1-6 to GAJAM: Girls missions event
- take your boys in grades 1-6 to RAEXPO: Boys missions campout
- take your teen girls in grades 6-12 to Thrive: Missions Retreat for Teen Girls